“ It was so exciting to me to hear that Fleeta, Cliff, Sandy, Greg and Steve were coming to Kentucky for a visit. Some of my favorite memories are in Monticello when we would gather at Grandpa's house. I can only imagine what the adults were thinking particularly when that bunch of kids got together and being mischievous. Another of my favorite memories was when Fleeta introduced the Kentucky bunch to homemade Lasagna. I want you to know that you are in Tonja and my thoughts and prayer.

“ Grandma, I miss you dearly... I have so many memories and not enough space to write them all down. Some of the best memories were are trips on the buses all over the city. Especially seeing Pope John Paul II in Chinatown. I thank you for all the stories and back rubs. I love you and will always miss you.
