“ Dear Oliva's Family, May God Bless You All and Grant You Strength to help ease the pain and sorrow Ramon's loss has brought. I knew Ramon through the Mary Immaculate Parish years. He was a wonderful young man and I know son and brother. Unfortunately, life takes you and your friends through different directions in this case, states! I just wanted you to know that I remember Ramon fondly and I know our Lord has his path lit for him. May Eternal Peace Grant Unto Him O'Lord and May Perpetual Light Shine Upon Him. I'll be lighting candles and offering a novena for Ramon and his Family. Mary Immaculate Pray for Us Sincerely, Cindy Padilla

“ Dear Olivass family, I feel your deep sadness and loss, and I am embracing you all in the highest Divine Love and Light... knowing without a doubt that Ramon is in his Heavenly home surrounded by the loves ones that have gone before. Ramon was such a Light in life. He was always thinking of others first. His sweetness and kindness was so beautiful. I am holding his sweet memory in my heart. His Light is forever shining bright, and now he is watching over all of you, his loved ones. Caring for you from a different dimension. God is good, and Ramon is in Gods hands now. With deep sympathy, Agneta Bylund

“ Ramon and I became friends the day he started working at Litton Data Systems 30+ years ago. He was part of the largest group of new hires that I ever had to give orientation to and he helped me through it. We had our inside jokes as friends always do. He would call me and tell the receptionist he was George Brett (Kansas City Royals) because he knew I thought George Brett was so cute. He never missed calling me on my birthday. I could always plan on that. He would always tease when I went to visit my Dad up north and ask if I was going to see the longhorn, short neck cattle and I would say no, the short horns with long necks. Thinking about Ramon and those things brings a smile to my face. He was a good friend and I miss him.

“ Thank you for being a part of our wonderful AYSO 174 family. Thank you for caring for our kids like you did and for being a kind, loving, and supporting coach. We will miss you and remember you always. Our most sincere condolences to all of Ramon's family, especially his beautiful girls. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. May God give you the peace and comfort that you need at this most difficult and sad time. Love, The Ramirez Family Marco Sr, Ana, Joandra, and Marco Son
