“ The Mansions of Heaven

By: Darl Dinger

This world, however beautiful, was never meant to be the place that we would call home for all eternity.

And though we would not choose to leave, a loving God knows best,

& in His time He lifts us to a place of peace and rest.

For He has built a mansion where His children will abide, free from pain and sorrow, forever by His side.

He said He'd never leave us to face our trials alone,

& though we sometimes fail Him, He never fails His own.

And even when our choices are less than He would ask,

He knows when human courage is unequal to the task.

We cannot judge what happens, though tears & questions start.

We only see what's visible, God sees into the heart.

And though there are many things that we cannot explain, we can be sure it breaks His heart to see His children's pain.

In loving arms He bears us to a quiet place apart, where He mends the wounded spirit & heals the broken heart.

And though these ones we loved so much have left our present sight,

& passed into a better world of majesty and light.

Someday we'll be together in our Father's home above, where we'll thank Him for His mercy & praise Him for His love.

Dedicated to the Loving Memory of Adrian Cuentas
