

Mr. Albert Ferrero Garcia

August 12, 1931 - May 19, 2020

On May 19, 2020 our beloved Albert Ferrero (Tito) García of San Fernando was called to the Lord at the age of 88. Tito was born to Martín García and Theresa Ferrero in Delano, California on August 12, 1931. He was the second to the youngest out of six siblings.

In the year of 1957, he moved to San Fernando, California where he met and later married his first wife. Together they raised four children Mario, Danny, Albert Jr. and Norma. Through his children there is a total of eight grandchildren and four great grandchildren. He worked for a construction corporation for 35 years where he was a superintendent. He later got divorced and remarried to his current wife. He acquired her two sons Albert and Jose. Through them he had five grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

He enjoyed gardening, carpentry, fishing, coaching, watching live sports and family time. He was compassionate and had a great sense of humor. He was the type of man that never turned his back on you when you were down.

His final resting place will be at San Fernando Mission Cemetery.
