

Angelo Luongo

June 20, 1934 - October 11, 2020

Angelo Luongo passed away peacefully in his sleep on Sunday October 11, 2020 at his home in North Hills, CA, after a long battle with cancer. He was 86 years old.

Angelo was born on June 20, 1934 in Pittsfield, Massachusetts to Angela Rosa And Giovanni Luongo who immigrated to the United States from Italy in 1927.

Angelo and his family, his mother and father and siblings, Rocco, Daniel, Toni, Mary, Katie and Sam moved to Los Angeles in 1947. In 1950 they bought a home in North Hollywood, CA where they lived and grew up. While growing up he had a great love for baseball, played for many years and even went on to coach the kids at the local little league.

After attending LA Trade Technical College in Los Angeles, Angelo went to work for Sol Kest. He was best known for his capacity as a “supervisor” of anyone who worked for him.

Angelo loved to laugh, had a great sense of humor and had a deep love for his family, friends, golf, fishing and camping. He was most at home in the outdoors and loved teaching anyone who would learn how to fish and golf. He belonged to a golf club for many years.

He is survived by his wife Renee, his daughters Valerie, Michelle with husband Jeff children Ryan and Allison, Suzanne and husband Jeff and son Nicholas, stepdaughters Lisa with husband Peter and children Ashley, Riley and Kaeley, Carlee and children Vanessa and Naomi, great grandchildren Bryton & Ayden and Jennifer with husband Brent and children Savannah, Ben and Jessie, as well as many nieces and nephews. He is predeceased by his former wife Jeanette.
