Annie (Anidia) Garbe 89, of Roanoke Virginia passed away suddenly of heart failure while visiting family in California. Annie was born on August 22, 1929, in Mayaguez, Puerto Rico and was the youngest of four daughters of the late Fernando Sanchez and Micaela C. de Sanchez. At age sixteen, Annie and her family emigrated to California where her love of the ocean and palm trees around her made her feel at home. In California, she met and married the love of her life, Robert M Garbe, raised three children and celebrated fifty years of marriage. Preceded in death are her husband, Robert M. Garbe, and her sisters, Mari Valentin, Cali Colon, and her precious grandchild, Trevor Harrison Garbe. Annie is survived by her sister Luz Hodge, her three children and their spouses, Michele (Jeff )Stockham, Michael (Carol ) Garbe Mary Anne (Bob) Buckley and the grandchildren she adored, Danielle (Chris) Caputo, Jason (Sheri) Bauer, Elizabeth (Shaun) Price Jeffrey (Eleanor) Stockham, Kelly Garbe, Evan Garbe, Kyle Buckley and Jessica Buckley. Her five great-grandsons that brought her such joy Dominic Caputo, Finn and Rhys Bauer and Draven and Declan Price as well as many nieces and nephews and great nieces and nephews that she loved as her own. All were truly her sun, her moon, and her sky.

Annie's favorite holiday was always Christmas and her favorite season during the year was summer as the island girl in her could never quite adjust to the cold. After moving to Virginia in 2001, she would travel to and from California to enjoy as much warm weather as possible

Annie's love for family, music, dancing, card playing, classic movies, Spanish soap-operas, and all things Disney kept her days full and happy.

Annie's service will be held Friday, May 3rd, 2019 at the Utter McKinley San Fernando Mission on Columbus Street at 11:00 a.m. followed by a graveside service at the San Fernando Mission Cemetary and a Celebration of a life well lived.

Her wish would be that in lieu of flowers, donations be made in memory of her grandson, Trevor Harrison Garbe to the Hunters
