Anthony, I still can't believe you're not with us. It's heartbreaking to know that this is a reality. I will always remember how kind hearted and nurturing you are. Whenever I needed to hear a positive message, without hesitation you would talk to me or send a video clip my way. I loved to replay those video clips, they were so uplifting and would give me strength to continue the day. So many memories with your family, I have made a promise to my parents that I would not stop fighting for justice and now I'm making that promise to you. Until we meet again cousin, Wings up!! Love and miss you terribly..
