

Ms. Bertha Alicia Rodriguez

November 5, 1931 - July 25, 2018

Bertha Alicia was born in Chihuahua, Mexico on November 5, 1931 to the parents of Rodolfo and Esperanza Larrea. She is the eldest of four children, two brothers, Rodolfo and Arturo and one sister Esperanza. At a young age, she lost her Father and helped raise her younger siblings. In 1956, she came to the United States with her brother Rodolfo.

She met the love of her life, Jose at the Santa Rosa fair in October 1959. Then they dated for one year and married in Las Vegas on October 29, 1960. years later came the birth of their children, Jose Arturo, Elvira, Alejandro, and Raul.

Bertha was blessed with nine grandchildren, Christopher, Matthew, Candace, Dominick, Ashley, Daniel, Dylan, Dyleanna, and Brandon.

She was known by her family for her amazing one-of-a-kind cooking and baking talents. She began our tradition of baking pumpkin empanadas, snowball cookies, and delicious tamales during the Christmas season.

Bertha's smile was her way of showing and expressing to others her genuine and authentic heartfelt emotions and personality.

Bertha was an amazing Wife, Mother, Grandmother, Sister, Godmother, Aunt,

Sister-in-law, and Friend. Her beautiful smile will continue to live in our hearts forever. We know God will welcome her with open arms into His immaculate world, a world without pain and suffering. She is reunited with all her loved ones in heaven. She will always be remembered in our hearts.
