This was my birthday party in LA in 1962. Cousin Donna is holding Tim and Rodney and Mary Ann is beside them by the stairs. It was a wonderful time. How do I put into words how much our cousin Donna meant to our family. She was the standard for what family means. She was always there for any of the family, she had a beautiful smile and laugh. I will never forget her. I send all my love and prayers to Ken and all the family. God Bless you all. Your loving Cousin Kimi and family.
