“ My heart goes out to all of you, it's tough today but remember all those special things you shared will be missed by him too. In 1968 I was introduce to a a young man named Hieto by Bob. Bob said he was the best friend anyone could have. He was right Eddie went beyond a friend helping Bob and I during our courtship. Eddie you earned your wings going those who needed help, listening and opening up your home too all. You will missed and again thank you. One day there be a cure for cancer

“ I remember when we were little, and you lived down the street from us in San Fernando, my mom would always have Taco Tuesday for her compadre! You would always make us laugh and let us climb in your big rigs you had parked in the yard...so much fun! Eddie, you were the best and I will miss your smile, your laughter, your crazy sense of humor but mostly your big heart. I was lucky enough to see the love you shared with Louise..that was special! And the love you had for Hanky and Monique and all the g-kids..heck you were everyones Pop! You were always there to listen and not judge, to teach us but not do it for us because you knew how it would help us grow up and if we fell, you would pick us up. You will be missed so much...I love you Hieto..here's hoping they have Taco Tuesdays in Heaven!

“ I loved Eddie very much. I either saw him or spoke with him every day for as long as I can remember. As a kid the way I understood my parents company when they would explain that it was a "family business" in a child's understanding I took that to mean that the guys that worked for my family meant that they were now part of our family; so I loved the guys like they were family. Eddie will always be a part of my family. When my dad died Eddie took up a big responsibility to be there for my mom and I; I always knew he was one we could depend on. I can never thank him enough for that. I will miss Eddie more than I can say. There's not many ways that you can say my name but Eddie had a unique way every time he walked in our door & when he would see me HE had a way of saying "Hey Amy" that stood out & was different from anyone else. I will miss that but I am glad that no one can imitate it because Eddie was special. He was a one of a kind.

“ From the day we met Mr. Porras, he stole our hearts. He always had a joke, smile or hug for us..He always made us feel like FAMILY. I will miss him walking down the halls waving hellos to everyone and although we won't have the joy of seeing him physically, I believe we will meet again. To Mrs. Porras you are the best example of a Loving, Caring and Devoted wife to the love of your life, God bless you and give you the strength and courage to handle this difficult moment.

“ I have a good memory of Eddie helping my family during one of the earthquakes in the San Fernando Valley and when ever I went over to visit he always invited me to dinner with him and Louise/. When I first meet him I was alittle scared of him tough and rough, but he was a sweet and good guy. I told Louise she was a lucky woman. He will be so missed and my prayers and love will always be with their family.
