“ I want to express my condolences to family of Elizabeth Aguinaga, I just discovered she passed away. She was a good friend of mine, she lived in the next-door building.

We sure did have good times together. I would some times take her on errand runs and we'd have a bite to eat. Always kind to everyone. I knew her two sons John Paul and his brother Andrew. Good children.

We went to East Los Angeles one day to have lunch at Manuels Tepeyac restaurant on Evergreen Street and had a wonderful lunch. This 76-year-old will miss her.
