“ On a whim was looking up fraud and thought I would do a quick search on Gary Clark. I'm not sure how many people he fleeced out of $$ from his office in Century City with his investment "opportunities" with Altis or Red Road Entertainment etc.. The world is a better place without him.

“ I am not sure what compelled me to look up Gary's name this week, and I was deeply saddened to see this obituary. As a cheerleader in high school, I was always in a great position next to the court to see Gary in action. He had such ball handling skills! He was focused, fearless, agile and very, very speedy. Another random high school memory from the stairwell of our school.... My group (girls) was going up the stairs while his group (boys) was coming down. As we all squeezed past each other, Gary suddenly belted out, "S'cuse me while I kiss the sky!" He made us all laugh. Focus, grace, and joy. Those are wonderful legacies. I send my deepest condolences to Gary's family and his extended friend group.

“ I grew up with Gary in the Eastwood section of Syracuse. We both attended both grammar and high school together. As my sons would say, Gary had “mad basketball skills” even in grammar school. We both ended up in California, getting together several times over the years. I remember visiting him in Irvine, cocktails on Hermosa Beach, as well as working together in downtown Los Angeles to name only a few.

I always knew Gary would “have my back”. If you were his friend, he would have your back as well. He was that type of a man and Gary being a black belt is someone you’d want on your side! which he always was with me.

It’s been over 20 years since Gary and I have seen each other.

I am tremendously saddened to learn of his passing. He was a great guy. My heartfelt condolences to both his California and New York family.

“ What a tremendous loss of a dynamic person that fulfilled his journey on this earth. May his family and friends be consoled knowing that Gary has finally reached his true reward with God. You’ll forever be in my prayers, Gary. Goodbye my friend.

“ Gary was my younger brother by 4 years.
It is hard to believe this strong, handsome man ,who fought for so long to be here for Kim and Nicole is no longer here.
I was a widow at a young age with 4 young daughters to raise, my brother was there to help me throughout the years. He was generous to me, he provided at times what I was not able to for my children. Gary was a genius in his field , the websites he created were just amazing. He often provided me with tasks for his company and overly compensated me for them.
Whenever I traveled from the east coast to California it was always his house that I would stay at. We would go for walks in his neighborhood, he would walk out of a room and come back with a small snack or sweet for me. Kim and Nicole were his everything. I keep saying out loud... Gary I am so sorry, I am so sorry you are gone.
I had last spoken with him on New Years Eve and later that month he texted that he was in remission and praise God, we were so happy. As my nephew Ryan said at the memorial, the last few weeks of this man's life were ones of great joy.
Gary our hearts are broken, you struggled for so long and always came out a better person for your battles. You have your beautiful daughter Nicole to carry out your legacy. I love you Brother Gary. God bless and keep you in His care.

“ Like all that knew Gary, we are devastated. I had the wonderful pleasure of growing up with Kim and I/we will always be there for Kim and Nicole but this leaves a whole in all of our lives. Gary was a wonderful man, husband, father and friend who will be missed by all. Like Sheila (Gary's sister) wrote, we share in the sadness and hope to celebrate Gary's life in California at some point. Hugs to all as we remember all the wonderful memories and times.

“ All of Garys'East coast siblings, family and friends share in the sadness of Kim. Nicole and Garys' California family. It was a tradition when I visited to bring pizza dough from home and have a pizza night. Along with my son Ryan, it was Garys' favorite-he loved that pizza. Growing up Gary was a handsome gifted athlete with a large circle of friends-who became lifelong friends-we all love and miss you, brother and hope that we can all celebrate your life together in California at some point-love you, brother-Sheila
