“ Like many other pet owners, we were very saddened to hear of her passing. It was always an enjoyment when we stopped by to have our dogs groomed and being able to chat with her. She was a true down to earth, common sense lady who loved all animals who came her way. Rest in peace Jackie, you will be truly missed.

grooming business to help out and make extra money. At one time I had bought a car that I didn't know how to drive because it was a stick shift. She told me you buy it and I will teach you how to drive a stick shift. And she did, we drove to a vacant lot and she says now it's your turn. In just a few hours she taught me how to use the clutch and when to shift gears. I am so grateful for that. Also she trusted in me to take care of her house and her animals whenever she wanted to go away for the weekend. She loved all animals. She was a

“ I will always remember Jacquie as a kind, compassionate, and tireless advocate for animals. She was a remarkable and well-respected woman to luckily have a business for decades that reflected her passion and commitment. My heart goes out to her family for their sudden loss. Please know that she is and will forever be missed by me and so many others. We lost a good one.

“Jacquie and I met 28 years ago. Over those years she not only groomed my dogs, but became a dear friend. She became Auntie to my sweet pups. They were never caged at her shop. They got to run around with all the other pups that had that privilege. It was like a play date for them. They loved their Aunt Jax. She & I shared many dinners together. I loved to cook and she loved my food. Every holiday she was here with me. It feels so strange not to swing by & drop off some fresh baked blueberry bread, one of her favorites. There is such an empty space in my world since her passing. She was such a lover of animals and many of their lives were changed because of her love and dedication to them. My world is so much smaller without her and I will miss her so. Good bye my dear, dear friend. My dog Jay Jay passed 18 days before her. She groomed him for 16 years. She adored him. I am sure their spirits are flying the universe together. Two special souls left me and I am devastated and miss you both with all my heart ❤️ Fly among the Angels and all the doggie & kitty souls that you loved through your life. Good bye dear friend.

“Jacquie was loved by many people and their pets. She was a kind woman that cared about the animals that came to her. She always felt that for the time an animal came into her shop, until they went home, they were hers. She was a hero to abused pets. But she was also a hero to broken people, at least this broken person. She didn't just give me a job 27 years ago, she gave me a career, and a purpose. There were so many people she helped throughout the years. She always was willing to give people a chance, no matter what their past was. There were many times it was only her and I at the shop, she would say "Sink or swim", I think it was the love she had for the animals that kept her going. She wasn't just a boss to me, she was my friend, and always someone I could turn to, she was the mother I always wished for. So many tears I had shed with her, so many joys as well. If you loved animals as much as she did, then she thought of you as her kind of people, but if you were neglectful or abusive, she had no problem telling you where to go. She saved the lives of many animals, but she also saved the life of one eternally grateful woman who found no joy in this world, until Jacquie stepped in. I'm heartbroken to lose you Jacquie. For every tear I shed, is equal to the love I have for you. And as much as it hurts now, I would not have missed out on our time together for the world.

I told you previously how beautiful I felt your tribute to Jacquie was. It makes me shed tears all over again as I just read it again. I don't have much hope for me containing my tears on Sept. 17, but I'll try. I loved Jacquie too.
