“ Grandpa words cannot describe the the pain in my heart. Thank you for showing us all how to be better human beings, through your faith, the unconditional love you gave us and teaching us how important family means. I love you so much and miss you everyday. Love your first born grandchild. XOXO May you rest in heavenly peace.

“ I can remember my adolescence meeting John at Santa Rosa Church and Town Barber Shop. I learned of your passing thru social media as I have moved away from my beloved home town. I can say your presence in my life was appreciated as you always greeted me with welcome and kindness. I know the Lord will do the same. Rest In Eternal Peace and someday we will meet again.
