

Jolene T. Jordan-Lee

December 20, 1940 - December 25, 2024

Jolene T Jordan-Lee, a longtime resident of Whitman and Hanson Massachusetts and Southern California. She passed away peacefully while surrounded by her loving family on December 25, 2024, at the age of 85, from complications due to a stroke. She followed the footsteps of her loving parents, Phyllis, and Antone Andrews by serving as a member and Chaplin for the VFW, Post 697 in Whitman.

She is well loved by her church family at Crossroads Worship Center in Weymouth and her friends at Whitman Housing Authority on Harvard Court in Whitman. Her final years were filled with enjoyment, laughter, friendship, and love. She enjoyed singing, seafood platters, telling folks what to do and making handmade Afghans, scarfs, prayer shawls and hats for local hospitals and our American Vets.

She is survived by her children, Sharon M (Jordan) Mendes, her favorite son-in-law, Edward Mendes, Jr (Rocky) of Massachusetts, Brian E. Lee, of Massachusetts and Michelle F. Lee from Chatsworth California; and her 11 grandchildren: Edward III, Michael, Joyanne, Naomi, Samantha, NinaMarie, Nicholas, Michelle Luv, Ryu, Syxx, Storm and 21 Great-grandchildren: NyKera, Breanna, David, Allana, Star, Quran, Aiden, Jewel, Kylie, Elijah, JaSenya, Maya, Mikaela, Jeremiah, Keilyn, Jackson, Alyssa, Everly, Xavier, Latisha, Quincey along with her sister, Joyce D. Jordan of Hanson

Massachusetts, her niece JaNelle Jordan and her daughter Angelina and her only male cousin, Ronald Martin of Boston Mass.

She was predeceased in death by her two children, Dewayne M. and Debra A. Costa. Her loving parents, Phyllis and Antone Andrews, and her former husbands, Carl Costa and Edward Lee.
