

Jorge Garcia Jr.

September 23, 1983 - July 25, 2022

On, July 25, 2022, Jorge Garcia Jr., loving father of two children, passed away two months shy of his 39th birthday.

Jorge was born Sept. 23, 1983, in Fresno, CA to Jorge Garcia Sr. and Brenda (Forrest) Garcia. He spent his early childhood in the suburbs of Chicago, IL before moving to Los Angeles, CA with his family. After high school he moved to Bullhead City, AZ where he met his wife Carla. They had two daughters, Cayla and Cloe, before eventually divorcing. After the divorce, he moved back to the Los Angeles area.

Throughout Jorge's life, he worked a variety of jobs, most often as a mason on construction projects, work he was immensely proud of.

Jorge was a lifetime wanderer. He loved to walk and explore the city or take long drives to nowhere, simply admiring what he saw along the way. He often made friends with everyone he came across.

He loved to read, often sharing his love of the Harry Potter series and loved rap music, frequently composing his own lyrics. He loved watching superhero and sci-fi movies. He was known for his kind spirit and gentle heart. He will be remembered for his unending supply of love and smiles.

Jorge is survived by his two daughters Cayla and Cloe, his parents Jorge Sr. and Brenda, his brother Sam and his sisters Martha and Mary, his nieces Tori and Samantha, and his nephews Josh, Kris, and Tommy.
