“ My condolences to you and your family, Diane. My memories of Joe include you Diane-always together. You and Joe both worked so hard and did so much to share our faith with the CCD students and their families. You and Joe worked at the polls at El Cariso Park. Seeing both you and Joe helping our community and those last minute voters encouraged me to keep volunteering. It was always nice to see you both at McDonald's, with a crowd of friends surrounding you playing Mexican Train Dominos. Please count on me if there is anything I can do for you. I am praying for both of you. May Joe rest in peace.

“ Joe was a kind and loving friend to us. We met through marriage encounter when my husband Bryan and I were young newlyweds. Joe, and his wife Diane, took us under their wings. Joe and Diane modeled, for us, what it means to have a sacramental marriage—a sign of Christ’s presence and love ❤️. Joe picked us up every week to attend the Marriage Encounter Love Circle Group. We had no car and lived in a very violent neighborhood. Our other friends repeatedly refused to visit us for fear they would be shot. Not Joe. Joe not only picked us up but took us home after very late night conversations. That was in 1977. We have remained friends ever since. Joe and Diane’s love and support has strengthened us as a couple and individually. Joe was the older brother I could always count on. His gentleness, patience and caring spirit was as comforting and generous as his bear hugs. Joe was a “straight shooter” who took God’s Word seriously and helped us to take it seriously by being involved in the prolife movement and peace and justice. Joe was the kind of person that you want “in your foxhole.” He was loyal, true, dependable and a fighter for what was right. The last time I saw Joe was when he and Diane visited us in Fresno. We went out to breakfast and thoroughly celebrated our friendship. It was like no time had passed between us even though we lived 300 miles apart. Joe, we love you so much and know you are here with us, just in a different way.
