“ Uncle Joe, my heart has another break in it. I will miss you in all the big ways but also all the little things that you are. I have such beautiful memories of all the musicals and plays we all saw together. All the days we walked right on to the Paramount Studios lot, got my hair done at the studio stylist and then "did lunch" at the commissary. Those are big things that have been in my memories for years but honestly its really all the little things that will bring the smile to my face. Like every time I see a car going to SLOW on the freeway I will smile let out a frustrated sigh and fondly remember all the times they sent all of us kids with you in your car while the adults all went with someone else. And I will never be able to eat fried clams or blue cheese dressing without remembering you. Be at peace and give big hugs to all of our loved ones you get to reconnect with. I love you now and forever Uncle Joe!!! Lots of love and peace to you , Colleen
