

Julie Kathleen Mares

October 12, 1957 - September 30, 2014

When I Am Gone,
Do Not Cry For Me.
For Heaven Has Opened Its Doors,
Big And Wide, Although You Can't See.
When I Am Gone,
Yes, Your Heart May Ache.
For The Loss You Feel,
Can Never Be Replaced.
When I Am Gone,
Hold Each Other Close.
For I Am No Longer There To Ease Your Pain,
My Family Will Link Together, The Unbreakable Chain.
When I Am Gone,
I Will Be Up Above So Hight.
For I Am Watching Over You Everyday,
Your Guardian Angel In The Sky.

“ Julie we met as kids. We lived around the corner from each other. Monterey park. I have fond memories of you .. Shannon your mom and dad.. Our trips to the desert.. We met when you were 8 and I was 9 and although we parted when you moved away.. I never forgot you and was glad we reconnected on FB. God bless you and you are a true angel.

“ I will always remember you as one of, if not the most strongest woman i know. I learned many things from you, but the best thing i could have ever learned was to not let life's trials and tribulations get you down because there is so much more to look forward too. Smile, dance, and be cheerful through it all because giving up wont get you anywhere. You were BEYOND amazing, you were a great mother, friend, coworker, and everything else in between! You will be missed but forever remembered!

“ I'll never forget your room with a white canopy bed and pink shag carpeting and your kind words to me on facebook. You're a very brave lady with a beautiful family. Miss you and glad you and Shannon made peace the last few years. Love, Victoria
