Clarice Leone Hayes

June 10, 1930 - September 21, 2016

Clarice Hayes, 86, former resident of Mission Hills, died peacefully in Castro Valley. Born to Karl and Elizabeth Krogman in Rice County, Minnesota. Clarice survived her husband, Duane "Bud" Hayes after 38 years of marriage. They raised a son and daughter in Glendale. Her time was filled with small jobs at her children's school, and later, industrial plating. She took pride in revamping her home décor and collecting angel figurines. Traveling to Egypt and Malta excited her. Clarice was known for her strong friendships, easy personality and love of family. She is survived by her daughter, Judy (Harven), grandchildren Gabriel and Lyndsey (Harven), Tammy (Black); sister Dolores (Flick) and brothers Phil and Carl (Krogman).

“ Judy and Bill, My fondest memories of Clarice were when we used to spend Thanksgiving together. One year Clarice stayed with us and I remember talking for hours around our kitchen table, sharing stories about her younger years. She used to make the best cranberry relish and that year she gave me the recipe. To this day, I make that cranberry relish for the holidays and always think of Clarice! She will always have a special place in my heart.

“ Dear Judy, Clarice was such a warm loving person and I always enjoyed her company. I remember visiting her at the trailer back then where she was really at ease with her family and pets. My parents always enjoyed her visits as well. She will be missed. Jim Harven
