“ I met Linda in July 1988. We met at Marquardt in Van Nuys. She invited me to her Halloween party. I met all her family and a lot of her friends. That is when I met her brother Bobby. I thought he was married. We had a casual conversation and that was it. The following year Marquardt started a bowling team. I decided to go and just hang out. Bobby was there. I ended up on the team with Bobby and we started dating. One day we were at Martha's house and JB came over. Bobby introduced me as "Linda's friend". So JB always called me that. I will never forget Linda teaching me, the white girl, how to make Spanish rice. She asked me that night what was going on between Bobby & I. I told her I loved him. She told me I better not hurt him. Bobby and I will be married 24 years this July. So I really want to say thank you Linda. If it weren't for you, I would not have met my soul mate. I will always miss you. I love you.
