“ One of the most difficult things to deal with in life is the death of a loved one. Even for the Christian, death is a part of life. Unlike they that do not believe, the Christian has a blessed hope that is the return of the Savior Jesus to catch up His Church and bring them to eternal life with Him and God the Father in Heaven. Here are some scripture quotes about death that I hope will comfort you .John 14:1-4 Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way to where I am going. Liza, You were one of the nicest people i have ever met in my life. It was like your heart was filled with only LOVE and never HATE. I remember the last time i saw you. You had dinner with my God Parents Mr and Mrs. Maggio. You looked so pretty and I hope you stayed that way in Gods hands. I hope when I die, that I will then see you to in Heaven. God has opened a new room for you to sleep in in his BEAUTIFUL house with Jesus. I will keep praying for you day after day. In the name of the Father, The Son, and the Holy Spirit. AMEN.

“ Liza was the sweetest, most kind and gentle, person I have ever met. Ever. Always a smile on her face and willingness to help. As a sister-in-law, she was truly a sister to Dave and myself. As an Auntie, my kids love her unconditionally. As a friend, there was no one like her. It is so heartbreaking that someone this amazing was taken from us at such a young age. We know that she is now free from pain and happy once again while protecting each and every one of us from Heaven. She is, was, and always will be an angel. Love you, Pretty. We will love, and miss you forever.

“ Liza, it has been and always will be an honor to be your brother in law, and for you to be a part of our family. I know you loved coming down to San Diego and playing with our Niece Madelyn and Nephew Carson. Our whole family will miss you so much and we know you are with the Angels in Heaven.

“ My cousin Liza. Always looked out for me and my mom when I was little. You're a selfless woman whom wanted the best for your family and cooter man. You exemplified everything a strong woman is; kind, hard working, loving, and you kept it real. You were really gone to early but now we all know you're in a better place. I'll miss you cousin. Love, Harold

“ There are no words that can express the loss that we feel in the passing of our beautiful Daughter-in-Law, Liza. She brought us much joy into our lives. Liza was always concerned about our health even though she was in pain. She was the daughter that we never had. Liza always treated us with love and respect. We never heard her say an unkind word. LIZA was a devoted wife to our son and it was easy to see how much they loved each other. Liza will forever live in our hearts.
