“ It was an honor and a privilege to have known Maria Elvira Fernandez, it was great to be loved by her. As a grandson in law I felt as if she was my grandma, I know she will continue to bless my wife and I the same way she always did when would leave the house. She inspires me to live my life to the fullest. I'll never forget her kind words and her witty humor, I love you abuelita, I'll miss you dearly, I'll always take care of Jacky.

“ Everyone who met my grandma instantly loved her, she was sweet, caring, and wise, everyone thought she was so cute. My grandma was like a mother to my siblings and I and we will really miss her, the love she had for her grandchildren and family was unmeasurable. Our grandma is the most devout Catholic I know, she always took time out of everyday to pray, she practiced what she preached and I know she's in heaven looking over us. We love you abuelita, it hurts us to know we won't see you at home anymore or hear your lovely voice... until we meet again.
