“ The memories I have will last a lifetime of our time together in NY. My first real love of big dogs came from Aunt Bunny & Uncle Artie - and it continues till this day. Rest Easy - until we meet again 💔

“ Bunny and Art Sr were like 2nd parents to our entire friend group. They always invited us in. We spent many nights playing Pictionary and other games and spent many days swimming in their pool. The Stilwell home has always been like a 2nd home for me. Oh and the stuffed shells... those were awesome. RIP Bunny Stilwell, you're finally reunited with the love of your life. You and Art touched the lives of so many of us and we will miss you.

“ *Bunny is my sister. She has always & cared for me as a child & helped me out times as a adult. There are 9 years between us. I got to go out with her many times. (I was a pain in the ass 😂) When she would go out at night, I would be waiting for her to come home. I would wait sleeping in her bed. I was her flower girl at Bunny & Artie’s wedding. I loved my brother in law & they were so amazing together. They would pick me up & stay with them on weekends. (Always spoiled) They had 3 boys, Art, Shawn & Joey. I love you all ❤️❤️❤️. I will miss you Bunny so much & I love you always. Thank you for all you’ve done. You are back to Artie where you belong...
💕💕💕 love you both..*

“ I remember “Bunny” as I and my family knew her , in the 1960’s , the Cucinata’s lived in Farmingdale on Long Island NY and we lived close by and visited frequently. Bunny was always so very kind and happy as was her sister Lorraine. Bunny got married to Arthur I think I was at the wedding and moved to Islip also on Long Island, they had 3 beautiful boys and my family visited them often , Bunny always made you feel very welcome and always cooked great delicious Italian food ! Bunny will be missed very very much by many. Rest In Peace Marie.

“ So many of Art's high school friends will always have fond memories of Artie and Bunny opening up their home for both planned and spontaneous gatherings (especially if it included a way to avoid having to spend our own money on "Pay Per View" events)! Their love for each other, their boys (and their dogs!) was undeniable. I know that they are thrilled to now be reunited.
