“ March 30 my best friend left me to go home with the angels to Jesus. What a ride we had together. From our first date at the Red Lobster to the “will you marry me “. Our amazing wedding of “I do”. What a life we lived. Mark was always by my side supporting me. With the birth of our sons Kevin and Eric. All the adventures we all shared together. Kevin and Eric leaving their childhood home to build their own lives with amazing women. Kevin marrying Alison and Eric marrying Mikala. Mark and I love Alison and Mikala as if they were our own daughters! Eric and Mikala gave Mark and I the most precious blessing from God, three precious grand babies Delylah, Delaney and Roen. The joy of our lives!! Mark and I always said we are truly blessed! So many memories of a life long together. My best friend is now gone. No longer will I hear the words “Annie Darling “ or “I love you”. No longer will I have his hand to hold, or the kiss good night or just a hug when you need it the most with a “ it’s going to be alright I’m here”. No longer do I have my protector my defender my confidant. But one thing for sure I will always carry Mark in my heart all the days of my life! I will always love you my DEAR!!! ❤️

“ Mark I will always remember you for the kindness you would radiate. Thinking of others how you went out would call me up to take me out to lunch that always made me feel special spending one on one time with you guys. And Marc so caring concern for my walking and my well-being with my Parkinson's whenever I leave the house he'd always walk me to the truck to make sure I got there OK even when he was really sick he designated somebody to walk me to the truck one thing that sticks out with me, but I thought it was so funny is your rooster the one that was attacking everybody the one that Keith got in the fighting room with and I don't know who won because neither of them gave up, but you were totally amazed that I was able to teach it to feed out of my hand I love the rooster in those hens so much. That was a great memory for me. It makes me laugh every time I think about it. thank you Marc for all your concern and love always thinking about others you will be greatly missed and there's an Alan Jackson song called Drive and every time I hear that song I think of your sons and you growing up on your property talks about a truck and a boat all I can say to you right now Marc is Godspeed. I'll see you on the other side.

“ Uncle Mark, how does one put into words the feelings that come with this situation. I'll try my best. As a young child , I have sweet memories of you and Ann, Kevin and Eric. You were always kind to me. You told me to get out in nature and not be afraid of getting my hands dirty and showed me how to fish wiry my dad. I thought of you as a master fisherman like so many do. 😊 you sure were great at that! You raised two awesome sons and I'm glad to call them my cousins. They are awesome people and married very sweet wives. That says a lot about you. We missed a precious time together but I won't focus on that, as you said , that's something I couldn't fix on my own but sure wish I could have. Family means everything to me and always has so those missed moments are tough but I was so happy to see you and hug you the other day. You called me sweetheart and said some very nice things I'll never forget and hearing that from a loving Uncle is priceless. You don't know what it meant to me. 💜 I'm just glad I got to tell you that I love you and hear it from you too . You were so kind to me at Kevin's wedding as always, when I got to see you. It was so nice to see everyone and see how beautiful the whole family looked that day and feel the love between all . I'm grateful for that day. You built quite a legacy and I'm proud to call you my uncle. It's rare to meet a man who is so incredibly strong and masculine, yet also so kind and gentle. You mastered that. You were a true gentleman. I'll never forget you. I don't always understand certain things in life but I know one day, we will all be home and together again with God, everyone healed, and everyone happy. Until we are all together again, May you rest in Paradise with Nana and all those who are missed by many. Until we all meet again. I love you always, your niece, Mandy LeRoy
