

Patricia Mary Loring

June 3, 1925 - November 16, 2021

She was born Mary Patricia McBride in St. Paul, Minnesota and kept the family tradition of using her middle name as her given name. She learned resilience and grit at a very early age. Her father, Earl James McBride, died when she was just two years old. Her mother, Esperance, never remarried.

She grew up in a 3-story Victorian home raised by her mom and a loving group of aunts and uncles. She graduated high school from St. Joseph's Academy in 1942 and moved to Hollywood where she worked at Armed Forces Radio during World War II. She moved back to St. Paul in her early 20's, where she met and married the love of her life, Jerry Loring, a Navy lieutenant who served in the Philippines and South Pacific theaters.

Pat and Jerry moved to the Valley after the war and had four children, Kathy (now Mother Mary Veronica), Jan, Mark and Brian. All four attended St. Genevieve's elementary and high schools, grades 1 through 12. It was critically important to her they be raised with a strong Catholic upbringing. Jerry made his living as an insurance inspector for a company that would ultimately be purchased by Equifax. Pat worked with him as an executive assistant for nearly a decade. When Jerry passed away in 2000, Pat turned to volunteering at Valley Presbyterian Hospital in Van Nuys, which she grew to love.

Patricia will be lovingly remembered as a devoted mother, homemaker and Grandma. She so relished those moments with her seven grandchildren (Craig, Elizabeth, Matt, Kevin, Scott, Jen, and Thomas), as well as her five great grandkids (Hayven, Dylan, Kylie, Tyler and Vicky).

We always knew Mom's priorities – her devotion was to God, her husband and her children. She loved to laugh and enjoy the company of friends. And nearing the end, she truly looked forward to joining the Lord, with open arms and a loving heart.

Pat had an unwavering faith in the Lord and his plans for her.
