“ To my little Sister, I will miss you and forever love you. It will be hard not to pick up my phone and want to text or call you. You are in a better place now, You will be in loving hands with Mom, Byron and Grandparents, You will always be remembered. Sherry

“ Rest in peace my beautiful friend. We've known each other all our life. You were my little sissy, my bestest friend and the Thelma to my Louise. I will miss my morning and evening walks with you but I know you'll be with me every day. I miss your good morning text and how are you doing everyday. You are my angel sweet friend. You were the most kind hearted selfless persons I've ever known. I'm completely heartbroken. You are in gods hands now but forever in my heart. I love you sissy and I miss you so much. So long for now until we meet again...
