“ How I miss you Momma! What I wouldn't give to hear your voice one more time. I know Dad is with you and I know he is at peace. I'm just a little girl who really wishes her Mommy was still here. Keep watching over all your babies. I love you to infinity and beyond.

“ Mommy,

Well, I went back to work today. I hear you in the back of my head, telling me to take care of the kids, and to take care of dad. We miss you soo much. Even Daisy knows your not there, and heads straight to your room sometimes, like she knows you want her there.

I was talking to the monkeys yesterday, and we all gave each other a hug. I told them that I miss my mommy, and Laruth and Louie said "I really miss my Grandma, but she's our angel now Pumpkin. She always watches over us." Please watch over Lulu, dad, ruben, margaret and all the babies. They all cry every night, well with the exception of Ali and Leo. They are champs and have proven to be dads and my rocks. I cry on Leo when I feel sad, and he always tell me "Grannie is here Hammie. She's our angel now, and will always be with us". I'm soo proud of him, and I know that you are too. He is now and always will be your #1 Gordo.

You were there when Lulu and I had our youngest, and they both will always be your Gordos. When you ask Calvin where your at, he says "With Pumpin". I ask him, "GaGa is with me" and he smiles and nods yes.

We love you... We miss you... I carry you in my heart every day, and every night.

*I love you my beautiful Mommy :)

“ Siento mucho la pérdida de su ser querido. En situaciones difíciles como esta la Biblia nos invita a acudir al "Dios de todo consuelo..." Es muy consolador saber la promesa de Revelación 21:4 dónde muestra que ya no habrá sufrimiento ni muerte. Además Juan 5:28 y 29 promete que 'va a haber una resurrección de muertos' Espero que estas promesas bíblicas pueden ser fuente de consuelo para usted y su familia. “ My beautiful mom,
I miss you ever so much. It hurts so much. I don't know what to do without you. I still think it is a dream that I am going to wake up out of and pick up the phone and call and you answer. Your grand babies love you so much. We all do. You fought hard and strong. You give me strength to be strong for my little ones. I love you my mom, always in my heart.

“ *My dearest mommy,
I miss you soo much, but I also know that your not suffering anymore. The house feel weird without you physically there. We know your spirit is there, and we take comfort with that. I still miss you :( Watch over daddy, he's hurting soo much. He misses you more than anything and is heartbroken.
I love you soo much! Don't get mad at me for crying every now and then. It's my way of healing from this sometimes unbearable pain.
I love you and in my heart, I will see you again.
